A Prayer for this week

Lord, let me live with the knowledge that this world is not my home. Don't let me get too cozy here. Don't let me indulge myself at the expense of my soul. Instead, empower me to live an exemplary life... especially among those who do not know You. Let my character refute their prejudices. Let them be won over to Your side so when Jesus returns, they can join the celebration. I pray this in Jesus' name. Amen
