A Prayer for this Week

Lord, expose the lies that I have accepted as truth.

Help me to be committed to a local gathering of believers.

Help me to trust Christ alone for salvation and a better life.

Rescue me from the seduction of personalities and cultural trends that have convinced me to not follow You. Lord, I want the life that only You can give when I follow truth. Protect me from the lies that are actively trying to lead me astray.

I pray this in Jesus' name. Amen.
