A PRAYER FOR THIS WEEK

Father, I live in a world that demands me to make decisions in gray areas. Lord teach me how to have a clear conscience without pushing people away or belittling those who disagree with me. Give me a heart to love others and take from me the desire to bully others with my knowledge. Lord, reveal to me where I can join You in redeeming the gray areas. I want my life to honor You. I want people to see Jesus in me and be attracted to You. I pray this in Jesus' name. Amen.
