A PRAYER FOR THIS WEEK

Lord Jesus, thank you for loving me with agape love. Thank you for paying the price for my sins. Now Lord, make me like You. Give me the courage to love others unconditionally so that amazing, unordinary things will flow from You through me to people You have placed in my life. Teach me to obey the love You have placed in my heart when I'm dealing with difficult people. And when I am not willing, make me willing. Bring me into the myriads of people who were unordinary before me, and those who are unordinary around me, because they love You, follow You, and share You. Amen.
