A Prayer for this Week

Father, teach me to love my brothers and sisters in Christ. Expose any murderous or hateful attitudes in my heart. I will confess and repent of them because I want to be right with You. I know I have indifference in me. Give me wisdom and courage to face it and push back against it so I can obey You by sacrificially loving someone near me. O Lord, help to love others. I pray this in Jesus' name. Amen.
